

Funding for the GHA Book “12 Stories: Narratives from New Canadians”

Whereas the CFMS’s Global Health Advocacy (GHA) program has advocated for immigrant and refugee health for two years;

Whereas immigrant and refugee health funding in Canada has been reduced;

Whereas the Global Health Advocates and the National Officer of Human Rights and Peace advocate at the national level as part of the GHA three-year plan;

Be it resolved that the CFMS use the book 12 Stories: Narratives from New Canadians as an advocacy tool;

Be it further resolved that the CFMS provide financial support for publication and distribution of this book.

Moved by: Kimberly Williams (University of Calgary)

Seconded by: Robin Clouston (MUN)

Level of Effort/Time: Two months (duration of global health advocacy training and distribution).

Line item: Global Health Program.

Cost: $2,100 ($1,786.45 for printing 600 copies + 300.00 for shipping).